New Principal Joins Keiter Stephens

Glen Allen, VA – Keiter, Stephens, Hurst, Gary & Shreaves (KSHGS), a Certified Public Accounting firm, announces that Christopher L. Wallace, CPA, has joined the firm as a Principal in the Business Assurance and Advisory Services group.

Lewis O. Hall, CPA, managing shareholder of KSHGS, was pleased to have Chris Wallace join the team, “The fact that we were able to have someone of Chris' caliber join Keiter Stephens speaks highly of our reputation and the opportunities that exist within our firm.”

Wallace has over nine years of experience in public accounting providing audit and consulting services to clients in the financial services, manufacturing, distribution, and communications industries. Prior to joining KSHGS, Wallace was a senior manager with the Richmond office of Ernst & Young. His responsibilities included managing audit engagements for both publicly-and privately-held companies. Wallace graduated from Mary Washington College with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration.

Keiter, Stephens, Hurst, Gary & Shreaves, founded in 1978, provides a full range of financial services to businesses and their owners. The Firm has over 120 employees with offices in Richmond and Charlottesville. KSHGS is the third largest accounting firm in Richmond.
